This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

+ Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.

+ Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.

+ Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.

+ Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

PREFACE

This little volume is not intended as a social blue book, restricted to the few whom the world designates as "society", but it is hoped that the record of work done by the women of San Antonio and Southwest Texas will interest the readers and give an added influence and importance to the earnest women who are building up along all lines. In the last few years women's activities have increased by leaps and bounds. There is scarcely a single field of professional, industrial, intellectual endeavor that they have not entered and in all of these they have made good. One of the greatest educative forces today can be credited to the thousands of women's clubs which are to be found in every city and hamlet. The personalities behind this force become an object of interest. As time goes by and organizations become powerful and influential there is a desire on the part of strangers and the younger generation to know who were the pioneer women in the work, who laid the foundations. These are questions constantly being asked and in this volume the effort has been made to record this data accurately.

The personnel includes not only women of San Antonio but workers in Southwest Texas and many women who have formerly lived in this city and still hold membership in some of the organizations. San Antonio is familiarly called the mother-in-law of the army and an effort has been made to list the girls who have married in the army, giving the regiment to which their husbands belong. Many girls who were once well known San Antonio belles are now married, living in other cities. It was impossible to make a complete list of these and doubtless many have been omitted who should have been named.

If in future years you can turn to these pages and see "Who has been Who" in San Antonio the destiny of this little book has been fulfilled.

Civic Organizations

THE BATTLE OF FLOWERS ASS'N.

An organization which has done much for San Antonio owes its success to the women. In 1891 when the President, Benjamin Harrison, was expected to visit San Antonio, the question naturally was asked. "How shall we entertain him?" It was on a Sunday afternoon at the ranch home of Col. H. B. Andrews that the suggestion was made by J. S. Alexander, who had seen the flower fete at Nice, that this would be an appropriate way to entertain the President. Mrs. J. L. Slayden, who was present, had seen flower parades in Mexico and she entered heartily into the plan. She had warm supporters in Mrs. H. B. Andrews and Mrs. J. J. Stevens. Mrs. H. B. Andrews was chosen to head the committee of arrangements. Much enthusiasm was shown in the fete and only Texas wild flowers were used. Every woman trimmed her own carriage and the entire cost of the first battle was just $75. The committee who were actively engaged in the work were Mrs. Kampmann, Mrs. J. J. Stevens, Mrs. Slayden, Mrs. H. P. Drought, Mrs. J. H. McLeary, Mrs. W. B. Wright, Mrs. J. S. Alexander, Mrs. C. W. Ogden, Mrs. W. W. King, Mrs. S. M. Johnson, Mrs. A. J. Fry, Mrs. J. Darragh, Mrs. Schramm and Mrs. Burbank. The day the President arrived, however, there was a downpour of rain and no one was able to venture out. Two days later the women rallied their forces and the "battle" proved a great success, for it was really a "battle" and not a parade. Citizens turned out and bands played in the center of Alamo Plaza and the procession was led by the Twenty-second Infantry band. It was all of a patriotic, historic, and social nature, and so great was the success at the suggestion of Mrs. Slayden it was voted to continue it and make it a part of the San Jacinto Day celebration. The first "battle" occurred the week before San Jacinto Day.

The following year an organization was perfected with Mrs. J. J. Stevens as president. This year the Belknap Rifles and the San Antonio Militia's floats, bicycle brigade and the Fire Department were added.

The flower battle of 1893 was also managed by the women and was an acknowledged success in all respects. Mrs. J. H. French, Mrs. J. J. Stevens and others, many of whom had participated in the two previous celebrations, shouldered the responsibilities.

In 1894 and 1895 Mrs. John Fraser was the president. In 1895, however, the "battle" was held in June during the national meeting of the T. P. A. convention. Mrs. Elizabeth Ogden was president in 1896 and this year the fete closed with the Cotton Ball, managed by Miss Rena Slayden and Mrs. D. H. Ainsworth for the benefit of the city library (afterwards the Carnegie Library). The first queen of the carnival, Miss Ida Archer, was crowned, and Alex Walton was king. The "flower battle" was first recognized by the government and a salute was ordered fired by Secretary of War Lamont. Mrs. Ogden presided through the years 1897, 1898 and 1899. In 1897 the ball was given by the Daughters of the Republic and at this time Mae Cresson was crowned queen and Clinton Kearney was king. In 1899 Emma Reed was queen and George Gosling king.

San Antonio's first spring carnival opened April 16, 1900. This was the close of the beautiful and patriotic San Jacinto celebration. Miss Lola Kokernot was queen and Thomas Conroy king, and was a brilliant carnival.

In 1901 no carnival was held, but under the leadership of Ben Hammond, Mesdames Ogden, Stevens, Fraser and N. T. Wilson, there was a parade and a charity ball with Ethel Lowe queen and Lieutenant Cruikshank king.

Kings and queens were dispensed with in 1902 and 1903, but ecah year there was a parade and a battle.

With the years 1905 and 1906 the custom of naming queens and kings was revived and a society known as the Order of the Omala was organized. This society selected D. J. Woodward as King Salamat the First, and he selected Miss Clara Driscoll as his queen. Arthur Guenther was selected the following year as Salamat Second, and again Miss Driscoll was chosen queen. Miss Leonora Hummel was queen in 1907 and J. H. Kirkpatrick Salamat the Third. This ended the dynasty of the Salamats.

In 1908 Miss Bertha Rowalla was queen and Wallace Newton her prince. The Battle of Flowers Association was reorganized in 1909 with Mrs. S. G. Newton as president and Miss Eda Kampmann was named queen and Joseph Frost prince. Before another year went around the Order of the Alamo was organized and this body had the choosing of the queen. During this year also the name was changed and the annual festival became known as the Fiesta San Jacinto and Battle of Flowers. Mrs. Newton presided until 1912 and then Mrs. T. A. Coleman took her place. After two years service she was followed by Mrs. Atlee Ayres who also served two years, and was followed by Mrs. Winchester Kelso, the present incumbent.

The queens of the Fiesta during those years were: 1910, Miss Nana Davenport; 1911, Miss Helena Guehther; 1912, Miss Julia Armstrong; 1913, Miss Mayme Storey; 1914, Miss Katherine Franklin; 1915, Miss Josephine Woodhull; 1916, Miss Katherine McGown; 1917, Miss Elizabeth Kokernot. During these eight years the queenly part of the festivities took on an entirely different aspect than in previous years. Each court was given a different name, and Her Majesty was attended by duchesses from many of the cities of Texas.

Although no kings were crowned during the years of 1909 and 1910, the line was resumed the following season when Fred W. Cook was crowned king of the Cotton Ball. In 1912 W. C. Rigsby wore the crown; J. Bruce Martindale was king of the Fiseta in 1913 and Erhardt Guenther in 1914.

That same year the Order of the Gran Quivera was established to name the king for the Fiesta. The details of his arrival and entertainment for the week of his reign are left in their hands. Dr. T. T. Jackson was their selection for 1915, and in 1916 Walter P. Napier was crowned Antonio II, King of the Fiesta San Jacinto. J. H. Haile was king in 1917.

THE CITY FEDERATION.

The City Federation was organized twelve years ago with Mrs. Lida B. Alford as president. Its object was to unite all women's organizations in the work which was being done for the welfare of the community. The following women have acted as presidents: Mrs. Alford, Mrs. Rufus Lewis, Mrs. Eli Hertzberg, Mrs. J. S. Peters, Mrs. H. D. Brown, Mrs. J. T. Smith. Twenty-three clubs are in the federation. The following committees have been created and active work is being done along all of these lines: Social, music, suffrage, recreation and social center, observation and law enforcement, club extension, peace, legislative, rural, civic, hospitality, made-in-San-Antonio.

The federation is specializing in rural library work. Teachers are constantly calling for books to relieve the barrenness of rural life. A number of clubs have agreed to look after the needs of some rural school, either giving them a complete library or assisting to raise funds. A magazine depot has been established in the Court House. The City Federation gave three maternity boxes to the Public Health Association, which were completely equipped for both child and mother.

Miss Brackenridge's birthday, March 7, is now known in the club world as Friendship Day and each year a beautiful entertainment will be given. The manufacturers recognized the worth of the clubs by tendering their presidents a luncheon, each article on the menu made-in-San-Antonio. Various clubs have their specialties: the Women's Club, social welfare, the conditions that surround young girls and juvenile homes; the Self Culture Club has recently appointed a social welfare committee; the German Literary Club is interested in charities and the Home for the Aged. Thus it is along all lines of work, each club does its part and unites in making the federation a power for good.

The officers are: pres., Mrs. Getzweller; vice.-pres., Mrs. Hugh Rice; cor.-sec., Mrs. Leta Larkin; treas., Mrs. Leo Cotton; rec.-sec., Mrs. E. W. Oeffinger.

THE WOMAN'S CLUB.

Motto: "Not for Self, but for All."

The Woman's Club was oranized Oct. 1, 1898, in room No. 5 of the Daily Express Building. The officers elected at that time were: pres., Miss M. Eleanor Brackenridge; 1st. vice.-pres., Miss Marin B. Fenwick; 2nd. vice.-pres., Mrs. Elizabeth Kampmann; 3rd. vice.-pres., Mrs. J. A. Buckler; 4th. vice.-pres., Mrs. Mary V. Maverick; rec.-sec., Mrs. P. H. Swearingen; cor.-sec., Mrs. H. C. Carter; treas., Mrs. Roy Campbell. Mrs. Brackenridge retained the office of president for seven years. Other ex-presidents are: Mrs. Eli Hertxberg, Mrs. J. Tom Williams, Mrs. Conrad Schasse, Mrs. Milton Bliem, Mrs. Leroy Bates, Mrs. J. R. Sprague, Mrs. W. A. Daniel.

The Woman's Club was the first department club in the state, and has a membership of 175 This was not only the first club to organize with an unlimited membership, but it was also the first to take an active part in civic work. The work of the Federated Clubs had heretofore been confined to literary study and literary work. When this club was admitted to membership in the state federation it was necessary to change the state constitution by dropping the word "literary" from the name "Federation of Literary Clubs."

The first work started by the club was a small sewing school, followed by a cooking school. This work resulted in placing manual training in the public school.

The first police woman, Miss Elizabeth Hardie, was selected by this club.

The first class for the study of the laws concerning women and children which resulted in making this one of the studies of the State Federation was started in this club.

School gardens were fostered, and prizes awarded, both to the school with the best kept yard, and to the child with the best home garden. The literary features of the club were not neglected, as the department of music, art and literature are well attended and noted lecturers and singers have come to the city under the auspices of this club, the most noteworthy, perhaps, being Madame Nordica. This is the first club in the state to endorse and take an active interest in woman's suffrage. Brilliant luncheons and receptions also have been given. The meetings are held every Wednesday afternoon. This club owns its own home, located at 201 Camden Street. The recently elected president is Mrs. George H. Badger. The other officers are: 1st. vice.-pres., Mrs. Conrad Schasse; 2nd. vice.-pres., Mrs. L. S. Bates; 3rd. vice.-pres., Mrs. H. P. Drought; 4th. vice-pres., Mrs. W. B. McMillion rec-sec., Mrs. J. B. Murah; cor.-sec., Mrs. J. Frank Davis. The elections are held the first Wednesday in March. The membership is 175.

The summer of 1915 a committee of earnest workers procured free ice and milk for the very poor of the city during the heated term. Eight women were added to the city's police force. A successful Flower Show was given, started to encourage the home lovers to take greater interest in their plants, but developing into an attractive social event which has taken a hold on the community and now promises to become an annual affair.

Disfiguring bill boards are not in favor with the club women and while they have not been able to have them entirely suppressed, some good work has been accomplished.

Great interest is taken in the work of the District Nurses' Association and a matinee was given under the direction of the philanthropic department at which the sum of three hundred and nineteen dollars was raised.

The literary department took the university course in comparative government and brought Professor Potts of the University to lecture on this topic.

A group of young girls, daughters of the club members, have been formed into "The Little Women of the Woman's Club."

A political science department has been formed to work for suffrage.

The club has taken a membership in the State Welfare Association, and the Symphony Association.

A patriotic luncheon given on Washinton's Birthday anniversary was such an unusual success that it was decided to make it an annual function.

Political Organizations

THE EQUAL FRANCHISE SOCIETY.

The meeting called to organize a suffrage society in San Antonio was held in the parlors of the Menger Hotel, Feb. 17, 1912. Eight women responded to the call. They were: Miss Brackenridge, Mrs. Elizabeth Kampmann, Mrs. Bedell Moore, Mrs. T. N. Devine, Mrs. Cora Ogden Wilson, Mrs. Smithie Graves, Miss Fenwick, Mrs. George Maverick. The following officers were elected: pres., Miss Brackenridge; vice-presidents, Miss Fenwick, Mrs. Elizabeth Kampmann, Mrs. Bedell Moore, Mrs. George Maverick, in the order named; sec., Mrs. Cora Ogden Wilson; treas., Mrs. N. T. Devine; auditor, Mrs. T. A. Coleman.

This meeting was followed on March 2 by a large reception given in the ball room of the St. Anthony by Miss Brackenridge. A month later a tea was given at the Menger Hotel by Mrs. Kampmann and on both of these occasions many new members were added.

The social affairs have always been popular and largely attended. Luncheons were inaugurated and at each were several hundred guests. Many speakers of note have visited the city, among these Dr. Anna Shaw, Mrs. Phillip Snowden, Helen Todd, Helen Ring Robinson, Nellie McClung, Lutie Stearne, Helen Boswell and others. There are now more than a thousand members enrolled and meetings have been held in all parts of the city. Automobile trips to the neighboring towns have proven a great success and much literature has been distributed. Delegates have attended all of the national meetings and worked with the law makers in Austin.

The women who have held the office of president of the association are: Miss Brackenridge, Mrs. D. A. Leary, Mrs. James Young.

The present officers are: pres., Mrs. Rena Maverick Green; 1st. vice-pres., Mrs. Milton Bleim; 2nd. vice-pres., Mrs. J. T. Smith; 3rd. vice-pres., Mrs. Wheeler Pettus; 4th. vice-pres., Mrs. J. T. Woodhull; sec., Mrs. A. D. Thompson; cor.-sec., Mrs. Noah Allen; treas., Mrs. E. W. Richardson; auditors, Mrs. Getzweller and Mrs. John Blocker.

Women who did much active work in the early days were Mrs. W. L. Dunne and Mrs. Mabel Mussey Bates.

Spell, Waco; cor.-sec., Miss Fenwick, San Antonio; rec.-sec., Louise Murphy, Dallas; treas., Mrs. Annie Walker, Austin; auditors, Mrs. Ring, Houston, and Mrs. Goodrich Jones, Temple; natl. com., Mrs. James L. Slayden.

A SUFFRAGE REFERENDUM.

Because the suffrage question looms conspiciously above the horizon of public interest the sentiments of women interrogated will be of value as they show the drift of public opinion. Among the 500 women who replied to the request of the editor only ten registered as being decidedly opposed, two favored restricted suffrage for both men and women, one was in favor as soon as the ignorant vote was eliminated, twenty confessed perfect indifference, and a goodly number did not care to go on record, but fully ninety per cent were outspoken in favor.

OUR READING CLUB.

Motto: "Who Keeps One End in View Makes All Things Serve."

The club enjoys the distinction of being the oldest literary club in the city. It was organized May 17, 1892, with Mrs. Lucius Polk as president. The first meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Polk. The five women present at that time were Mrs. Polk, Mrs. Willard Simpson, Mrs. J. Townsend Woodhull, Mrs. O. S. Newell, Mrs. G. Stewart Simons. The women who have filled the office of president of this club are Mrs. Polk, Mrs. O. S. Newell, Mrs. Florida Sharpe, Miss Roberta Johnson, Mrs. N. T. Devine, Miss Sarah Reed, Mrs. Charles Wilson, Mrs. Willard Simpson, Mrs. A. R. Thomas, Mrs. J. E. Lockwood, Mrs. Cora Davenport, Mrs. W. W. Collier, Mrs. H. D. Brown.

For fourteen years every Monday afternoon this club met in the old Stribling home on Pecan Street, Mrs. Stribling having been one of the founders of the club. The meetings are now held in the Woman's Club house. The original object of this club was to bring together the old time families and keep to the front some who on account of bereavement were dropping out. This has been strictly a study club and has been excelled by none in the quality of the work done. Some good literary attractions have been presented under its auspices. It celebrated its twenty-fifth anniversary May 17. Mrs. J. T. Woodhull and Mrs. Willard Simpson being the only original members present The membership of the club is limited to twenty-five. During the past twenty-five years the club has studied Ruskin, Carlyle, Macauley, Emerson, Thoreau, Lowell, Shakespeare, Russian literature, art, Japan, Holland, British Isles, the German Empire, Scott, Greece and French literature, Victorian poets, American literature, the French in America, Fiske's historical works, "Mathew Arnold and his times."

The coming year short stories and the modern drama will be taken up. The club has contributed to the Free Kindergarten and a library to a rural school, but it is strictly a study club. It is a member of the City Federation.

This club was organized in 1900 by a small band of women on Prospect Hill who desired to hold fast to the study habit of their school days and not permit the cares of the home nor the claims of society to divert them from following some line of systematic effort. It was known as the Self Culture Club.

There are forty members and they have studied the world's best literature for seventeen years. This is the fourth oldest club in San Antonio. The membership now comes from all parts of the city and meet fortnightly at the Gunter Hotel. The club has joined forces with all other clubs in every movement for the general good.

They have also sewed for the city nurses and assisted the needy in many ways. Through their efforts a bright girl was kept at school and the club has helped with Red Cross Work and Christmas seals.

This club observed Home Economics Week with the chafing dish luncheon, the cost and preparation of which was discussed during the meal. Civics and philanthropic day was observed by a tea with local speakers telling of the city's needs. Federation Day was celebrated by a luncheon with the City Federation president and another prominent club worker on the program. The club is affiliated with the City, Fifth District, State and General Federation.

Mrs. George Powell was the first president, followed by Mrs. J. T. Smith, and then again Mrs. Powell was called to the chair. Many women eager for parliamentary drill are on the waiting list. Meetings are held at the Gunter Hotel every two weeks on Thursday morning and lasts just one hour.

S. A. BRANCH SOUTHERN ASSOCIATION OF COLLEGE WOMEN.

Election: First Saturday in March.

Officers 1917-18: pres., Miss Elizabeth West; vice-pres., Mrs. H. H. Ryan; sec., Miss Nannie B. Clamp; treas., Miss Ella Butler.

This year has marked some long strides in the advancement of the organization. Not only have the meetings been interesting and enjoyable, but some of the ambitions of other years have become realities. For the first time in its history the branch has proudly turned to a printed year book for the program of monthly meetings.

One of the greatest charms of the meetings is the social half hour that follows the business session and the program. As many of the members are teachers, the meetings in the homes are delightful treats. This year, however, the branch has also enjoyed the novelty of two meetings at down town tea rooms. The December meeting was a luncheon at the Japanese tea room, at which the San Antonio Pan-Hellenic Association met with the branch in joint session. Miss Roberta Lavender of the University of Texas gave an inspiring talk on "The Responsibility of College Women to Citizenship." The March meeting was held at the Carolina tea room, the branch honoring its former presidents with a tea. In Mrs. Funston's stead, Mrs. Ethel Parsons spoke on "The American Red Cross Work."

The greatest achievement this year was securing Mr. Alfred Noyes, in January, for a reading of his poems. His program was a rare literary treat. Moreover, the profits from the sale of tickets made possible our long hoped for scholarship loan fund. For the year 1917-18 at the University of Texas, the Branch is offering a scholarship loan of $200 to a San Antonio girl.

The branch has been put in charge of the sale of candy at a concert for the benefit of the San Antonio Free Kindergarten. The indications are that another financial success will be scored for the aid of education.

The College Day committee is working on a plan to make the College Day program very attractive to the girls. Living pictures representing the traditions of a number of colleges will form part of the entertainment. An invitation from the Philanthropic Society of the High School to a college play that the society is giving, complimenting the branch, is a source of gratification. This evidence of the girls' appreciation of our interest in them is pleasing and encouraging.

The roll of the branch for 1916-17 shows twenty-three new members and a total enrollment of forty-nine members.

WOMAN'S PAN HELLENIC ASSOCIATION.

The Woman's Pan Hellenic Association was organized in 1916 by a number of society girls for the purpose of promoting good fellowship among fraternity women and carrying on a certain amount of social work. While the youth of the organization has not permitted much of the latter, definite plans for securing a scholarship fund for the purpose of sending girls to college are on foot and next year will probably mark the beginning of social activities to raise money.

The monthly meetings, held on the second Saturday of every month, have thus far been mostly social events.

The membership is made up of residents of San Antonio and vicinity who are in regular and good standing of a fraternity that belongs to the National Pan-Hellenic Congress, and at the present time includes about seventy-five members.

The officers are: pres., Miss Elma Dill Russell; vice-pres., Miss Marjorie Hicks; sec., Miss Nora Deussen; press reporter, Miss Pauline Murrah.

THE PEN WOMEN.

The San Antonio Pen Women organized in May, 1911, with Mrs. R. D. James as the first president, Mrs. J. Kendrick Collins vice-pres., Miss Harriet Ford sec. Its objects are: "Mutual improvement along literary lines and for the study of the works of the great minds of the world, and to keep in touch with the world-wide interests and topics of the day."

The organization believes in bringing all the brightness and happiness possible into the lives of others. This is evidenced in the department of "Flowers for the Living," which does not strictly mean literal flowers, but little deeds of kindness to every creature in need of love and sympathy.

The Aztec Bowl, which at first seems to savor of mystery, is only a simple and agreeable incentive to the art of extemporaneous speaking. The social hour is a joy at every meeting, and full of merriment.

The officers for 1917-18 are: pres., Mrs. J. Kendrick Collins; 1st. vice-pres., Mrs. Sallie King Hopkins; 2nd. vice-pres., Mrs. Sterling C. Robertson; rec.-sec. and treas., Miss Harriet Ford; cor.-sec., Mrs. R. D. James; parliamentarian, Mrs. Frank Bell.

Membership is limited to twelve.

THE WEDNESDAY LUNCHEON CLUB.

This organization was effected May 17, 1916, in the oak room of the St. Anthony Hotel. Membership limited to twenty-five. Luncheons are given every Wednesday at 12:30 o'clock at the St. Anthony. Object, a general discussion of current topics and the entertainment of visitors who may be in the city. Luncheons begin with the first Wednesday in November and close the last Wednesday in April. The members take turns presiding and arranging the program. Permanent chairman, Marin B. Fenwick; sec., Mrs. Roy Campbell. Members: Mrs. W. A. Adams, Mrs. Blanche Badger, Mrs. Carlos Bee, Mrs. E. C. Branch, Mrs. Roy Campbell, Miss Fenwick, Mrs. Gustave Gieseke, Mrs. Smithie Graves, Mrs. W. S. Hendricks, Miss Elizabeth Houston, Mrs. C. C. Janin, Mrs. Perry Lewis, Mrs. Wm. B. Lupe, Mrs. G. W. Martin, Mrs. Bruce Martindale, Mrs. Floyd McGown, Mrs. Wm. Negley, Mrs. Aaron Pancoast, Mrs. E. R. Richardson, Mrs. John Schorn, Mrs. Arthur Seeligson, Mrs. Lane Taylor, Mrs. A. B. Weakley, Mrs. E. Religious and Church Societies

DAUGHTERS OF ISABELLA.

Motto: "Unity and Charity."

The Daughters of Isabella is a fraternal organization of Catholic women. This court was established in Nov. of 1913. The present membership is 235. There are three departments, musical, literary and philanthropic.

The musical and literary work is confined to the membership, but the philanthropic work has no limitations, except that of funds.

Since the very time of organization it has been solicitious for the well being of a Mexican settlement work, conducted by the zealous Carmelite nuns of San Fernando Street. The nuns are devoting their lives to the uplift and care of the poor Mexicans.

Numerous families have been supplied with groceries, fuel and cash towards rent. Since January, 1917, $65 has been expended, much of this amount being contributed by friends of the organization to whom the work of the Daughters of Isabella appeals.

When the cry for preparedness swept over the country, "loyalty" seemed added to the motto of "Unity and Charity." With a spirit of patriotic impulse, it, acting for the Catholic women of San Antonio, established a Red Cross center at the Catholic Women's Club house. The club has co-operated in all Red Cross work.

The Daughters sold 10,000 Red Cross Christmas seals, served one day at the Postoffice, furnished a committee to assist with the Christmas cheer. Toys, nuts, candies, fruits and a Christmas tree were provided for 225 poor children of St. Phillip's parish and the same done for 280 Mexican children of the West Side. Eighty-six little girls from St. Joseph's Orphanage were entertained at a turkey dinner at the Catholic Women's Club house in true Christmas style.

A bazaar for the Good Shepherd Home in November realized over $300.

One of the special works of the order is conducting catechism centers through the city. These are classes where religious instruction is given to the children unable to attend the parish school.

SAN ANTONIO COUNCIL OF JEWISH WOMEN.

Motto: "Faith and Humanity."

The San Antonio Section, Council of Jewish Women, was organized in May, 1907, by the late Mrs. Flora M. Schwab of Cleveland, Ohio. Under the able leadership of Mrs. Eli Hertzberg, who has been president since its organization, the section has grown rapidly. The initial body of seventy now numbers one hundred and ninety-three. The council is one of the leading clubs of the city and is an important factor in all club activities. It is affiliated with the City Federation of Women's Clubs, the Free Kindergarten Association and with the General Federation.

In addition to co-operating with the other clubs in all philanthropies, the council organized and supported a free night school until it was taken over by the City Public Schools.

Under the leadership of Mrs. J. J. Sterne a free kindergarten has been established where mothers' meetings are held; a sewing school is conducted and a free library is established.

The council contributed generously toward the Texas building at the Panama-Pacific Exposition in San Francisco. The Red Cross work with Miss Hannah Hirshberg as chairman, has been assisted and the council has been active in all city work.

The officers are: pres., Mrs. Eli Hertzberg; 1st. vice.-pres., Miss Hannah Hirshberg; 2nd. vice.-pres., Mrs. L. Goodman; rec.-sec., Mrs. M. M. Harris; cor.-sec., Mrs. I. A. Victor; treas., Mrs. L. P. Peck; auditor, Mrs. Ike Levy; historian, Mrs. A. Levytanski; del. to City Federation, Mrs. H. N. Friedlander; alt., Mrs. Sam Stern; del. to Free Kindergarten Association, Mrs. M. B. Smith; alt., Mrs. A. Wallach.

The chairmen of standing committees are: Mrs. Emil Frank, Miss Nathalie Dalkowitz, Mrs. S. Wallach, Mrs. J. August, Mrs. M. Alexander, Mrs. I. Tobias, Mrs. Eliza Levy, Miss Carrie Piccard, Mrs. E. W. McCamish, Miss Stella Levison, Mrs. Morris Stern, Mrs. A. A. Brown, Mrs. Leon Rosenfield, Mrs. S. Baumblatt, Mrs. H. Leopold, Mrs. J. Guggenheim, Miss Blanche August, Mrs. Dave Strauss, Miss Reva Berman, Mrs. J. J. Sterne, Mrs. J. Simons.

The annual elections occur on second Tuesdays in May.

ST MARY'S COUNCIL OF THE QUEEN'S DAUGHTERS.

Organized March 12, 1908, and under the able guidance of the Rev. E. J. Carrier, O. M. I., who has been the spiritual director since its organization, the work accomplished by the society is a source of pride and gratification not only to the members, but to all those who are interested in seeing the poor and unfortunate aided spiritually and materially.

During the past nine years hundreds of dollars have been expended annually in relieving cases of want and destitution, hundreds of garments were distributed among the poor, families supplied with fuel, furniture and rent paid, patients paid for in sanitariums, tubercular cases cared for, patients placed in hospitals, transportation secured for indigents, and funeral expenses paid.

After the burning of St. John's Orphanage the Queen's Daughters were among the most active in relieving the little orphans made doubly homeless and later in organizing a woman's relief committee to aid in raising the sum of $25,000 which the Chamber of Commerce undertook to raise as a memorial to those noble sisters who sacrificed their lives to save their charges.

One of the greatest benefactions to the Queen's Daughters is the free use of a room, services of a physician and trained nurse at the Santa Rosa Hospital, which the sisters generously allow for the indigent sick of whom the society has charge. The society also maintains a free bed for St. Luke's clinic patients in the Santa Rosa Hospital. The St. Mary Council of the Queen's Daughters can hardly be spoken of without mentioning the names of Mrs. William Cassin, who for five years as president, and Mrs. A. J. Fitzpatrick, two years as president, gave of their time and means to further the best interests of the society.

The officers are: pres., Mrs. A. G. Castanola; 1st. vice-pres., Mrs. James Garland; 2nd. vice-pres., Mrs. Lee Petrich; rec.-sec., Mrs. Terrell Bartlett; cor.-sec., Mrs. Will Hasdorff; treas., Mrs. M. B. Baker; sec., Mrs. E. Griff Jones; spiritual director, Rev. E. J. Carrier, O. M. I.

ALTAR SOCIETY OF SACRED HEART CHURCH.

This society was organized to provide for altars and sanctuary of the church. The society has both a financial and social side; charity never knocks but what it responds.

The society looks for something that everyone else has forgotten, for the next move will be to take the old people of St. Francis Home out for automobile rides and then serve them with lunch before taking them home. The society was organized about six years ago and the membership is about sixty.

Officers are: pres., Mrs. P. P. Eiserloh; sec., Mrs. Mary Evins; treas., Mrs. Frank Graschel Jr.

DAUGHTERS OF THE KING—ST. MARKS.

The Daughters first organized in New York. There are now 417 senior chapters and forty-five junior chapters with an extension in Canada.

The order is a call to women to labor in Christ's vineyard on the same lines as those of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew.

Members are admitted with a solemn service before the altar, invested with the cross and pledged by a vow to prayer and service. The two rules are: First, to pray daily for the spread of Christ's Kingdom, especially among women, and for God's blessing upon the parish; second, to take regularly some part in the worshp, study and work of the church, to make a constant effort to bring other women within its influence and to render such aid to the rector as he may deem necessary.

The order meets twice a month and one of these meetings is being used by St. Mark's chapter for the study of church history.

The work is divided among committees as follows: Visiting, relief and altar.

The visiting committee welcomes strangers, visits the sick and other members of the parish.

The relief committee visits and relieves those in need and trouble. There is a clothes closet in the parish house, supplied with clothes by the members of the parish, and many cases of want have been relieved through this. Relief is extended to anyone regardless of creed.

The altar committee instructs the young girls of the parish in the care of the altar.

The annual election is held the second Wednesday in May. The present officers of St. Mark's chapter are: Rector, The Rev. W. Bertrand Stevens, Ph. D.; pres., Mrs. Geo. B. Kirwan; 1st. vice-pres., Mrs. W. D. Jackson; 2nd. vice-pres., Miss Mollie Muller; rec.-sec., Miss Harriet Brown; treas., Miss Annie Bee; cor.-sec., Miss B. M. Weibling.

LADIES HEBREW BENEVOLENT SOCIETY.

This organization cares for all families and their children in distress, relieves sickness and cares for the unfortunate.

The organization was formed in 1876, since which time it has cared for all Jewish families not allowing them to ask alms elsewhere.

As long as there are ten members in good standing this organization will continue to do this noble work. The membership is one hundred.

The officers are: pres., Mrs. L. Goodman (has held office for twenty-nine years); vice-pres., Mrs. E. Longini; sec.-treas., Mrs. Sam Harris. Annual election of officers the first Wednesday in January.

The splendid executive ability and great interest in the work of every president, has been the cause of the remarkable accomplishments of this society.

They have bought and paid for a three thousand dollar organ, contributed liberally toward the church debt, the Wesley House work, and many charitable calls, besides meeting every call for missionary funds made by the church.

This society has raised large sums by bringing to the city the famous Ben Greet Shakespeare Players, and the world renowned pipe organist, Clarence B. Eddy.

The officers are: pres., Mrs. J. G. Baldwin; 1st. vice-pres., Mrs. J. F. Atkins; 2nd. vice-pres., Mrs. A. P. Ford; rec.-sec., Mrs. T. W. Scott; cor.-sec., Mrs. F. L. Carson; treas., Mrs. A. J. WOMAN'S MISSIONARY SOCIETY OF GOVERNMENT HILL M. E. CHURCH.

This society is one of the strongest in the West Texas Conference. It was organized twenty-seven years ago under the ministry of Rev. H. C. Cunningham as the "Ladies Aid Society" in the Tenth Street Church. Miss Webb was the first president. It was by the aid of this society that the Sherman Street M. E. Church was built, after which the society took up the connectional work of the West Texas Conference, and was called the "Parsonage and Home Mission Society."

This society was instrumental in building a parsonage and helped the church to secure its present location, and was now called "The Woman's Home Missionary Society."

At present it unites both the home and foreign work in one. It has an enrollment of thirty members, has a library and a mission study class of two divisions. At present the study is "The South Today."

We have donated to Wesley House regularly, to Mission Home and Training School, and the foreign pledge this year is $50. There is a Young People's Society, also a Junior Missionary Society of thirty-one enthusiastic members.

The aim, hopes and plans are to help to spread the gospel of the Lord Jesus Christ, to add continually to the collection and to circulate it through the different departments of the church.

WOMEN'S MISSIONARY SOCIETY OF PROSPECT HILL M. E. CHURCH.

The organization of this society took place in 1905 but for several years prior to this date was an "Aid Society." The object and aim of the society is to hasten the coming of the Kingdom of God throughout the world by enlisting the women, young people and children in a study of the needs of the world and in active missionary service; by raising funds for the evangelization of mission fields at home and abroad; for the maintenance of the institutions under the care of the Woman's Missionary Council and for the betterment of civic and social conditions. The local work of the society consists of the care of the parsonage and the charity work of the church. The membership consists of twenty-five women.

The officers are: pres., Mrs. F. A. Carlson; 1st. and 2nd. vice-pres., Miss Myrtle Gray; supt. of social service, Mrs. G. H. Cunningham; supt. of publicity and study, Mrs. E. R. Harris; rec.-sec., Mrs. M. A. Straughn; cor.-sec., Mrs. Ralph S. Jackson; treas., Mrs. T. D. Barnes; asst.-treas., Mrs. H. V. Hohenstein.

THE WOMAN'S AUXILIARY OF THE FIRST PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.

More than fifty years ago, the women of the First Presbyterian Church organized for active Christian work into a society known as "The Ladies Aid." In its constitution the statement was clearly set forth that the society was an AID society. It mattered not from which department of the church the cry for help came, the ladies were ready, not only for "first aid," but to put their willing and resourceful hands to work to plan and execute ways and means that would effect a permanent cure of the trouble. They helped to pay off the old church debt, and the minister's salary. They bought an organ and paid the choir. They bought carpets and furniture. They helped the poor, cared for the sick, taught in the Sunday School, attended Wednesday night prayer meetings, entertained all visiting ministers in their own homes and did many other things along this line of church work.

Years have passed. The "Ladies Aid," guided by the clear judgment and unusual ability of its respective presidents, has kept to the fore in the march of progress and is a prime factor in the history, the life and the power of the church. With 166 active, earnest, progressive members, they continue answering calls for help from every branch of the church, besides doing a great deal of new work. Five years ago the Foreign Missionary Society and the Home Missionary Society were merged with the Ladies' Aid, and became the Woman's Auxiliary to the Church, doing all branches of work in the church, both home and foreign. The plans for this year is to raise the gifts to all causes 20 per cent, and it is our hope to interest every woman in the church in the Woman's Auxiliary.

The officers are: pres., Mrs. J. W Culver; 1st. vice-pres. and sec. foreign missions, Mrs. J. E. Jarratt; 2nd. vice-pres. and sec. home missions, Mrs. W. W. Kirkpatrick; 3rd. vice-pres. and sec. C. E. and M. R., Mrs. E. A. Holmgreen; 4th. vice-pres. and sec. Y. P. and S. S. E., Mrs. T. E. Moore; 5th. vice-pres. and sec. literature, Mrs. John Morison; rec.-sec., Mrs. F. M. Rounds; cor.-sec., Mrs. A. L. Whitman; treas., Mrs. O. M. Farnsworth; asst. sec. and treas., Mrs. T. H. Dennis. The annual election is held the first Monday in March.

THE SOCIEDAD DORCAS.

The "Sociedad" was founded on the third of December, 1915, by Mrs. Almeda Hewitt, at that time deaconess of the Wesley Community Home, and Mrs. Dolores A. de Arevalo. These women, seeing the great importance of having a Christian society among Mexican women for the purpose of co-operation in the work of Christ, a group of twenty women, members of the Methodist Church, were gathered together and the following officers were elected: pres., Mrs. Petra V. de Hureca; sec., Miss Rebeca Canales; treas., Mrs. Chavaria. The society was given the name of "Sociedad Dorcas" from Acts 10:36. The objects of the organization are: First, aiding materially those who are in need; and, second, seeking and winning souls for the Kingdom of God.

There are now twenty-eight members in the society and the officers at present are: pres., Mrs. Dolores A. de Arevale; vice-pres., Mrs. Josefa Gonzales; sec., Mrs. J. A. Manning; treas., Miss Ethel McCaughan. The annual election is held on the first Sunday in December.

The society continues its work, trusting God to give the fruit in His own good time. Its field is large.

The first Sunday afternoon of each month a devotional and business meeting is held at the church. Dues of ten cents a month are paid by the members. The funds thus collected are used for the most part for buying food for, or otherwise helping needy families.

A sewing department, which was much needed, has recently been organized. Miss McCaughan, deaconess, and a member of the society, took charge of this department. The women meet for this work once a week at the Wesley House. Once a month, instead of sewing, is is the plan to have a short program with a talk on some subject of interest to women, followed by a social hour.

On Thursday evening of each week is held a cottage prayer meeting, and it is a joy to see the homes in which these meetings are held, filled with listeners. After the reading and exposition of a passage from the Bible, the opportunity is given for any to accept the Scriptures. Then portions of the Word of God are distributed among the unconverted visitors.

It is the purpose of this society to present the Gospel, and if all have not accepted it, we rejoice that many have heard it through our efforts, and are trusting the promise of the Father, who said, "My Word shall not return unto me void."

MISSIONARY SOCIETY UNITED PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.

This society was organized Dec. 8, 1912, and now has thirty-two members; collects an annual thanks offering in November of each year, and the total amount for the five years is $171.11. The purpose of the society is to promote the Master's cause at home and abroad.

Organized several years ago, with only a few members, at present have fifty-three active members. Every year it contributes to home, foreign, state, associational, educational missions and supports old ministers, girls training school and Buckner's Orphans' Home. The society also gives something to the church equipment.

The officers are: pres., Mrs. Will W. Sloan; vice-pres., Mrs. H. H. Friar; sec.-treas., Mrs. C. L. Wall.

WOMAN'S AUXILIARY TO CAVALRY BAPTIST CHURCH.

The purpose, to stimulate and encourage systematic Bible and mission study, systematic and proportionate giving, prayer, and personal service.

The society was organized many years ago, and was originally called the Ladies' Aid Society, and while there was always Bible study and a certain amount of mission study, still the main idea at first was to help in local affairs with periodical missionary contributions.

The society was reorganized about eleven years ago under Mrs. R. F. Stocke's leadership, and took on new life and a higher aim than it had previously known. The membership increased and systematic Bible study was promoted, while systematic contributions to all objects fostered by the Southern Baptist Convention was instituted. The society also became a part of the general organization for Baptist women, known as the Woman's Missionary Union. This year there is a fine missionary study class under the dirction of Mrs. J. M. Bradford. Personal service is also being stressed.

The special aim of the society this year is to enlist the younger women of the church and have them become active workers in this field of usefulness in the Master's Kingdom.

The officers are: pres., Mrs. W. H. Dunning; vice-pres., Mrs. P. G. Simpson; sec., Mrs. N. S. Jenkins; treas., Mrs. H. E. Hull; cor.-sec., Mrs. M. King; reporter, Mrs. Dr. Holt.

WOMAN'S MISSIONARY SOCIETY OF THE FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH.

The Woman's Missionary and Aid Society of the First Baptist Church was organized under the pastorate of Rev. W. H. Dodson in 1876.

The reccords for the past sixteen years show that this society has contributed $31,680 for various purposes but this tells only in terms of dollars and cents what has been accomplished.

These figures would appear by far the smallest part of the accomplishment of a record of work done along the lines of personal service and spiritual development could be given.

Under the guidance of the present pastor, Dr. S. J. Porter, the work has grown marvelously.

The offfcers for 1916-17 are as follows: pres., Mrs. C. C. Gibbs; 1st. vice-pres., Mrs. H. L. Kokernot; 2nd. vice-pres., Mrs. R. L. Overstreet; rec.-sec., Mrs. S. F. Kirksey; asst. rec.-sec., Mrs. E. B. Lowry; cor.-sec., Mrs. R. O. Huff; treas., Mrs. Richard Johnson; pianist, Mrs. S. C. Gardner.

Parent Teachers Association

TEXAS CONGRESS OF MOTHERS.

Motto: "For the Welfare of the Child."

The congress was organized in Dallas Oct. 19, 1909.

The work of the organization is briefly summed up in the following:

Held the first child-welfare conference in the state.

Was instrumental in having the first official public recreation censor appointed in Texas.

Called eighteen state organizations into a conference for the discussion of child and home-welfare questions. As a result there was created a child-welfare committee, which during the first legislative session following its formation called into a conference the legislative chairmen of state organizations for the consideration of measures affecting child-life, with the view of promoting concerted action for the passage of the most necessary and important.

Prepared and sponsored a measure for a state child-welfare commission and another for medical inspection in the public schools.

Held the first child-welfare exhibit in Texas, conducting the same for three successive years, until the State University was prepared to collect such an exhibit.

Was the first state organization to promote an infant mortality survey.

Used its influence in getting the Federal Children's Bureau established and for adequate appropriations for its maintenance.

Assisted in raising funds for the State Training School for Girls.

Was the first state organization to conduct systematic campaigns for pre-natal care of mothers, proper obstetrical service, the prevention of opthalmia neonatorum, birth registration, infant care and feeding.

These campaigns are being methodically continued, and in addition equal attention to the harmful effect of tobacco upon the growing child, to the establishment of kindergartens, to the physical examination of school children by competent physicians and school nurses and to the teaching of thrift.

The kindergarten bill, framed by the state chairman of the kindergarten department, was after a few minor changes, enacted by the Thirty-fifth Legislature.

The needs of the dependent and the delinquent child are considered by a special department. Effort was exerted towards the enactment of a mothers' pension act and many educational and social welfare measures had active support of the congress.

The congress is consecrated to one great purpose—the welfare of the child in home, school, church and state. To that work it has given itself, with special emphasis on home-life. It is open to all who see the limitless opportunities for service to the children. Its work is needed everywhere, and all who would make their lives count most for the world's work have the power to serve in and through the congress.

THE BONHAM PARENT-TEACHERS' CLUB.

This club was formed by Mrs. F. W. McAllister in 1908. The club has maintained a bed in the Presbyterian Orphans Home and has given money toward the purchase of a piano for the Juvenile Training Home for boys.

The children's Thanksgiving offering for the orphans has been a very generous one this year, $30 being collected.

The club will continue to study the child and its needs, give all the pleasure to others possible, and will take up any work that is necessary to improve conditions in the community.

The annual garden party is held in May with some form of entertainment. Booths are in charge of mothers, where refreshments are sold. The sum of $310.60 was netted last May.

The kindergarten and playground work, City Federation and Mothers' Congress may be mentioned among the larger activities.

The active membership is made up of fifty or sixty mothers, with an average atten-

The Bowie Club hopes to gather and bestow all the educational helps possible "for the sake of the child," and the future citizenship of San Antonio.

Mrs. R. C. Hugman is president and the club now has a membership of thirty.

LOS ANGELES SCHOOL PARENT-TEACHERS' ASSOCIATION.

Organized in February, 1914, when the school was but six months old, with a membership of nineteen, its membership has increased as the school population has grown, this year the membership numbering fifty-five.

The club was organized to accomplish a specific end—that of urging the newly created district to vote a 50 cent maintenance tax. The tax was voted. Before the year was out it was thought wise to divert one-half of this tax, by a bond election, to the purpose of building a permanent home for the school, which was being conducted in a rented building, and the part the association had in that enterprise will ever remain to its credit.

Since the completion of the new house, in which the second term of school is now being conducted, the energies of the organization have been directed largely toward supplementing the school fund for the purchase of many things which the school would have been deprived of had these activities been wanting.

Directly attributable to the work of the club in this direction are the trees and the palms, the yard equipment consisting of giant strides, seesaws and climbing bars, and the greater part of the school library.

If one should ask the pleasantest feature of this particular organization the answer would have to be the perfect harmony in which it runs along, and the singleness of purpose with which it devotes its energies to the school. It is just a pleasant group of well-meaning mothers and friends meeting because they like to do it to keep in touch with their children and their school.

OTHER MOTHERS' CLUBS.

Other Mothers' Clubs carrying on the same line of work are connected with the Travis, Smith, Ruiz, Roberts, Morrell, Milan, Marjil, Lamar, Johnson, Hot Wells, Highland Park, Robert B. Green, Fannin, Brisco, Austin and Alamo Heights Schools.

The conference was formed in 1911; several bills, along the line of social legislation, have been passed through the help and the co-operation of the association, among these the compulsory education bill, the child labor bill and the juvenile court bill.

The conference has a membership of over 200 and is making an effort to have a department of state charities organized for the purpose of organizing the charitable agencies of the state and prohibiting the solicitation of agents for unworthy institutions.

The officers are: pres., Dr. Geo. Fox., Fort Worth; 1st vice-pres., Mrs. F. W. McAllister, San Antonio; 2nd. vice-pres., Tom Finty, Jr., Dallas; 3rd. vice-pres., Mrs. Edward Rotan, Waco; 4th. vice-pres., M. Lasker, Galveston; treas., W. B. Hamilton, Dallas; sec., Mrs. Flora Taylor, Dallas.

THE ASSOCIATED CHARITIES.

"From each according to his ability,
To each according to his need."

The San Antonio Charity Association was formed along broader lines than the ordinary society of this kind. The directors assume all the expenses of the society and what is contributed by the public is used for relief work. The office rooms are located in the Prudential Life Bldg.

The officers are: pres., E. B. Chandler; vice-pres., Nat M. Washer; sec., Mrs. Harriet N. Leary; treas., Mrs. Lewis Goodman.

The directors are: Mrs. Thos. W. Beck, Miss M. Eleanor Brackenridge, E. B. Chandler, Alfred S. Gage, Mrs. Lewis Goodman, Henry L. Halff, J. Ernest Jarratt, Mrs. J. H. Lapham, Nat M. Washer, J. Bruce Martindale, Albert Steves, Jr.

"Charity organization societies are sometimes criticised by those unacquainted with the real problems to be met and the methods necessary therefor, for spending too small a portion of their funds in material relief. As well criticise a sick man for spending more on his physician than in his drug store. The ideal physician would be he who could remove all cause of disease and restore his patient without any resort to drugs. The ideal charity association would be one which could remove the most distress in each case, and save it from pauperism and dependence without degrading it with alms."

The Associated Charities stands for:

Thorough investigation of all cases of distress.

Wisdom and discrimination in assistance.

The diminution of vagrancy and pauperism.

The prevention of indiscriminate alms giving and overlapping relief to the needy, thus securing the public from imposture and needless expense.

Formulating a plan for the permanent welfare of the family, making employment the basis of relief, so far as possible.

The encouragement of thrift and self-reliance.

Securing care in homes and institutions.

The cultivation and fostering of the spirit of social service.

The acquirement of funds, sufficient to enable it to carry on the work above mentioned in a thorough and systmatic manner, by educating the community in wise and adequate giving.

direction of the Board of Health, and have their headquarters in the city health office. After the first of June this work is to be made a department of the city health office, and will be supported by the city. The joint committee of interested organizations will, however, continue to assist and develop the work.

THE PROTESTANT ORPHANS HOME

The necessity for a home for destitute children was so keenly felt in San Antonio in 1888 that some of the charitable women of the city, undertook to organize such a home, and in 1890 the Protestant Home for Destitute Children was erected in Kentucky Ave., West End. The amount of money necessary for the erection of the building was secured by contributions from the citizens of San Antonio, by the first board of directors elected to manage the home. This board was composed of Mesdames Mary A. Maverick, Kate W. Norton, D. N. Bash, George Chabot, I. P. Simpson, A. J. Fry, A. J. Dignowity, F. L. Talcott, U. Lott, C. C. Cresson, H. D. Kampmann, Miss Lucy Cable and Miss Mary A. Lamb.

The home was then managed, as it is now, by a board of thirteen directors, meeting every Wednesday morning.

On account of the crowded condition of the home, in 1913 a building was erected that accommodates sixty boys, thus separating the boys from the girls. At present the home is taxed to its capacity, and it is the intention of the board to erect two modern dining rooms and an up-to-date kitchen, converting the old dining room and kitchen into dormitories, etc.

Many children as old as thirteen years come into the home who have never attended school, nor have they had even the necessities of life. Through the effort of the Kindergarten Association of San Antonio and the home, a free kindergarten has been established at the home, the older children attending the public schools in the neighborhood.

The girls are taught cooking, serving, nursing, sewing and laundry work. Under the guidance of Mr. T. P. Huff, who gives part of every Saturday to the boys, gardening is being taught.

Alzafar Temple, A. O. of M. S. has become interested in the home, and is equipping a playground. Apparatus is constantly being added, and as the home is located on two acres of ground, there is plenty of room for wholesome games for the 118 children now in the home.

It is the aim of the directors of the institution to make it a real home in every sense of the word, so that each child may retain its own individuality.

It is the pleasure of the home to have visitors at any daylight hour, for the directors feel that it belongs to Southwest Texas, as it is maintained by the charitable people of San Antonio and vicinity.

The home has had a number of bequests of late, the amounts being placed so as to form an endownment fund, only the interest being used to help keep up the work.

PUBLIC HEALTH NURSES' ASSOCIATION.

The Public Health Nurse's Association of San Antonio was chartered October 1, 1915, with the object of working "for the benefit and assistance of those otherwise unable to secure skilled care in time of illness; to promote cleanliness and teach proper care of the sick; to prevent the spread if disease, and to assist and co-operate with all agencies that are working to promote public health."

The association had a board of six directors, those for the first year being John Bennett, Jr., pres.; A. B. Weakley, sec.-treas.; R. J. Harding, Chas. S. Venable, L. B. Clegg, Rev. Phillip Cook. Later, through a close affiliation with the Woman's Club, the Red Cross Christmas seal committee and public welfare committee of the Chamber of Commerce, the work was taken over by the public welfare committee of the Chamber of Commerce and a joint committee of these organizations appointed to carry on the work, with Morris Stern as chairman. There are four white and one colored nurses on the staff. These nurses work under the

The work is divided into departments, each director being responsible for the management of her department, all departmnts subject to inspection by directors at all times.

The home is managed exclusively by women, the following composing the present board: pres., Mrs. Ben H. Zuber; 1st. vice-pres., Mrs. Adolph Wilkie; 2nd. vice-pres., Mrs. John L. THE Y. W. C. A.

The work of the Young Woman's Christian Association was inaugurated in 1910 with Mrs. Charles Venable as first president. The first home was located in the old James Place on Commerce Street. Here the work grew and flourished with Mrs. E. D. Love as secretary. Religious and social meetings were held and a woman's exchange, a cafeteria, employment bureau, reading and rest rooms and study classes established. The membership increased so rapidly that new quarters were absolutely necessary and at the close of the year the Terrell Building on Avenue D was secured and here the work was carried on with the addition of a boarding department. Miss Elizabeth Hardie was secured as travelers' aid and every line of association work grew to such an extent that before the end of the year 1913 it was deemed best to secure a permanent home and to this end a campaign for the purpose of raising $100,000 was inaugurated. The citizens responded generously and early in April, 1914, the new building located on Fifth Street and Avenue C was ready for occupancy. This is a beautifully equipped home.

A physical director was added to the staff and a swimming pool was opened which has been a most popular resort for all girls and women. Educational work has been enlarged and to this department has been added domestic science, Spanish, millinery, sewing, literature, stenography, hairdressing and manicuring. A special preparedness course in stenography has been given by Mrs. Vaughan and a hundred or more women are preparing to become stenographers in case their country needs their services.

The work has been extended by reaching out for the industrial girls and the forming of clubs. This work was successfully managed by Miss Shafer and Miss Friedman who came from New York for the purpose. Two or three hundred girls are in that department. Through the splendid work done by Miss Ruth Muir the girls' department was established and the work has been carried on by Miss Allen until now seventy-five girls are onlisted to assist and lend aid to all of the association's activities. These girls meet several times during the month and plan definite service. The employment department has ever been an active part of the association work.

The cafeteria, to meet the public demand, has been moved into the heart of the city. Girls living in the home have board and room for $3.75 to $5.25, which includes two meals a day and three on Sundays.

Other activities are vesper services every Sunday afternoon, October to June, five Bible classes, business women's club, an auditorium that is used for plays and commencements as well as social affairs given by the girls.

A summer camp for the association members has proven a most attractive feature of the work, giving girls an outing at small cost.

The women who have held the office of president during the past years are: Mrs. Charles Venable, Mrs. Bedell Moore, Mrs. J. J. Stevens and Mrs. Floyd McGown, the present incumbent. The other officers are: 1st. vice-pres., Mrs. J. H. Savage; 2nd. vice-pres., Mrs. E. C. Branch; 3rd. vice-pres., Mrs. H. L. Kokernot; 4th. vice-pres., Mrs. Harry Hyman; treas., Mrs Johnnie A. Jones; rec.-sec. Miss Lillian Rogers; cor.-sec., Mrs. A. B. Weakley; gen.-sec., Miss Ruth Muir.

The date of the annual election is the second Wednesday in January.

WOMAN'S AUXILIARY OF THE Y. M. C. A.

The need of woman's influence and help was felt in the very beginning of the establishment of a Y. M. C. A. home in San Antonio. To meet this need the woman's auxiliary was organized April 30, 1888.

It was the gift of a woman, Mrs. John C. French, a life member of the auxiliary, that made possible the home for boys and young men, and very largely through the influence and co-operation of the woman's auxiliary the Y. M. C. A. was formed and equipped. The furnishing of the library and dormitories has been very largely through gifts of the auxiliary.

The past year the woman's auxiliary gave very liberally for the establishment of the Y. M. C. A. border camp, and were instrumental in securing many thousands of volumes of good literature for the boys on the border. The future plans of the woman's auxiliary is still to be the right arm of the association in its work for the boys and young men and to aid wherever the need is greatest.

The present membership is one hundred and seventy-five. Of this number forty are life members, with an honorary membership of thirty-one.

The president is Mrs. W. J. Culver; cor.-sec., Mrs. R. T. Pruitt.

ST. JOSEPH'S ORPHANAGE.

St. Joseph's Orphanage is directed by Mother M. Virginia, superioress, who is assisted by fifteen sisters. The superioress is appointed by our Rev. Mother General, usually for the term of three years.

St. Joseph's Orphanage was organized for the purpose of caring for orphan girls, and of giving them a practical, intellectual and moral training, until such time as they should be competent to take a position; or, in some cases, to have them adopted into good, reliable families.

For its maintenance the orphanage depends exclusively on the charity of the good people of San Antonio, and the diocese. The institution is chartered.

St. Joseph's Orphanage was founded in the year 1870, and during the period of forty-seven years which has since then elapsed, it has cared for 1,797 children. At present, we accommodate 105 girls. Plans for the future are indefinite, except that it is the intention to carry on the good work, with the aid of the charitable citizens of San Antonio.

Organized in 1912 with a membership numbering only six, the club of seventy-two enthusiastic workers stands today as an evidence of the infinite patience and unselfishness of its founder, Mrs. Mamie Reynolds Denison. Realizing that the ability to appreciate classical music is not a trait born with the individual but the result of continual development for childhood, Mrs. Denison conceived the idea of a musical club for the children that would stimulate the love of music, encourage the performance of the best music and cultivate the art of listening to music.

Rebekah Odd-Fellowship was founded in 1851. Like other institutions which have struggled through adversity to ultimate success and honor, various claims of authorship have been made Yet the real founder and author of the degree was Hon. Schuyler Colfax, at one time vice president of the United States.

The aims and objects are to visit the sick, relieve the distressed, bury the dead and educate the orphan; in every way to assist their own members and to assist subordinate and sister Rebekah lodges in kindly minstrations to the families of Odd Fellows when in trouble, sickness or want.

To aid in the establishment and maintenance of homes for aged and indigent Odd Fellows and the widows of deceased Odd Fellows and homes for the care, education and support of orphans of deceased sisters of the Rebekah degree.

Too much can not be said regarding the work accomplished by the Rebekahs of Texas alone, as they work side by side with the Odd Fellows, caring for the widows and orphans, the sick or distressed, yet never letting the left hand know what the right hand doeth. At present there are nearly four hundred children in the I .O. O. F. Home at Corsicana, whom the Rebekahs are helping to educate, not only in a practical way, but in music and art, as thoroughly as any school or seminary.
